

ST. VLADIMIR'S ORTHODOX THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY 4TH ANNUAL

ACADEMIC SYMPOSIUM

OCTOBER 16-18, 2025

*“How Readest Thou?” (Lk. 10:26):
Orthodox Biblical Scholarship Between Church and Academy*

KEYNOTE ADDRESS: OCTOBER 16, 2025, 7 P.M. EDT

Open to the Public

“Orthodox Biblical Scholarship: Possibilities and Prospects”

PROFESSOR R. W. L. MOBERLY

Emeritus Professor, Durham University, Department of Theology and Religion

PAPER PRESENTATIONS: OCTOBER 17-18

Scholars and students interested in attending the presentations and discussions are asked to email the organizers at SYMPOSIUM@SVOTS.EDU

Friday, October 17

9:00–10:45 A.M., SESSION 1

THE REV. DR. GEORGE PARSENIOS, Characters in the Divine Drama of Salvation

DR. LYDIA GORE-JONES, *Liturgical Setting as the Sitz-im-Leben of Biblical Interpretation:
Using Scripture in Orthodox Lent as an Example*

11:15–12:45 P.M., SESSION 2

THE VERY REV. DR. SILVIU BUNTA, Before Method: On Coherence as the Limit of Orthodox Exegesis

THE REV. DR. MICHAEL AZAR, “Beyond what the Law Requires”: The Metabolic Telos of Orthodox Biblical Scholarship

2:45–4:15 P.M., SESSION 3

THE REV. DR. EUGEN PENTIUC, MT and LXX in Tandem: Searching for the Hebraica Veritas

DR. MICHAEL LEGASPI, On the Use of History in Biblical Interpretation

4:45–6:15 P.M., SESSION 4

THE REV. DR. DANIEL YORK, The Mother of the Light: Toward a Marian Reading of the Genesis Priestly Creation

DR. REBECCA LUFT, Old Testament Law and the Mystagogy of Priestly Ordination

Saturday, October 18

9:00–10:30 A.M., SESSION 5

THE REV. DR. COSMIN PRICOP, Orthodox Biblical Exegesis between Biblical Criticism, Patristic Interpretation, and Liturgical Reception

DR. JAMES WALLACE, *Does an “Orthodox Perspective” on Exegesis Illumine or Avoid Evidence?
First Corinthians 15:23–28 as a Test Case*

11:00–12:30 P.M., SESSION 6

COMMENTS, QUESTIONS, AND REFLECTIONS FROM PROF. WALTER MOBERLY
ROUNDTABLE DISCUSSION