THE COMMENCEMENT SPEAKER

PROF. PAUL MEYENDORFF, the Fr Alexander Schmemmann Professor of Liturgical Theology, joined the faculty of St Vladimir's Seminary in 1987, following the completion of his doctoral studies at the University of Notre Dame. In addition to teaching, he has held the post of Associate Dean for Academic Affairs (2002–2007) and of Editor of the St Vladimir's Theological Quarterly (1996–2002, 2007–present). Dr Meyendorff has taught as Visiting Professor at the University of Notre Dame and Yale Divinity School.

Throughout his career, Prof. Meyendorff has been active in the ecumenical movement, representing the Orthodox Church in the Faith and Order Commissions of both the National Council of Churches (1992–2003, Chairman 1996–2003) and the World Council of Churches (2004–present). Since 2003, he has been a member of the North-American Orthodox-Catholic Theological Consultation, and since 2004 of the international St Irenaeus Orthodox-Catholic Working Group.

He is the author of several books published by SVS Press, including St Germanus of Constantinople, On the Divine Liturgy (1984), Russia, Ritual and Reform: The Liturgical Reforms of Nikon in the 17th Century (1991), and The Anointing of the Sick (2009). He has translated several books for the Press and written numerous articles.

In 2013, he was awarded an honorary doctorate by the Saint Sergius Orthodox Theological Institute in Paris, France. ☐

THE VALEDICTORIAN AND SALUTATORIAN

The valedictorian, who is selected from among graduating M.Div. students, delivers the commencement address on behalf of the graduating class. The salutarian, an M.Div. middler who is completing his or her second academic year at St Vladimir's as a full-time student, offers words of congratulation to the graduating class on behalf of those who will be remaining at the seminary. The valedictorian and salutarian are selected by the faculty on the basis of each student's excellent performance in all aspects of seminary life, including academic work, participation in chapel services, and completion of community service assignments. ☐
